

Proper Job Resource Centre is a registered charity based just outside Chagford promoting re-use, recycling and reclamation. Our mission is the protection and preservation of the environment. We are seeking volunteers to work in a number of different areas of the charity:

- Practical volunteers who can spend time helping at the resource centre with donations and sales
- Work-from-home volunteers who would like to support us with ebay listings
- Volunteer drivers to support our work distributing surplus donations to homeless and refugee communities
- Charity trustees - 2 vacancies - we are particularly looking for expertise in leadership/management, chairing skills, finance, fundraising, planning & development and HR (one evening meeting and a few hours work each month)

All positions can be flexible to suit your availability. Please be in touch with our CEO Rebecca info@proper-job.org or 01647 432985
